Underground Doctor — Prologue

I've decided to pick up a new project that I'll do on the side. The full name for the project is 'The Genius Surgeon Has Started up as an Underground Doctor in Another World.' For the link to the raw and synopsis, here. I'll do it in parts, just like how RG is currently being worked on. Now then, enjoy~

In a luxury apartment room, he entrusted his body to a soft sofa. Right in front of his eyes was a table that had an ashtray and a cup filled with whiskey, with the TV switched on, he absentmindedly stared at the laptop before him.

The sound of the TV entered his mind on its own.

「Yes, I'm on site!! I'm in front of the home that belongs to the person who is called the genius surgeon, Ashiya Kaoru, however he has yet to make an appearance.

He hasn't made an appearance ever since the press conference.

We will, shortly start following his movements.

If there's any new development we'll report it.

This was a report from the site!!」

The reporter said with a bright smile, as the screen switched over to the studio's.

Critics(commentators) attacked all they could for eternity, as if they've found a new toy they disguise their curses within their commentary.

His mood turned sour just hearing about it, so he turned off the TV.

「Without even knowing anything..... Saying whatever they can say.....」

While saying that, Kaoru, fiddled with his laptop.

He didn't need to do that.

It's just that he has a vast amount of time.

Ever since the press conference, the media has stuck around his home, so he can hardly feel relaxed.

The mental fatigue isn't normal/ordinary either.

At that moment, his eyes fell on a certain site.

The site's name was, 【Your new life in another world! We'll fulfill your desires♪】 Usually he would ignore them, however for some reason this time it caught his curiosity.

The site has various fields that needs to be filled.

Gender, age, occupation, HP, MP, skills, avatar, and some blank spaces, so he decided to kill time by filling them in.

Gender : Male

Age : 18 Years old (Light: He's not actually 18, he's 35. This is what he wrote in the site. Check synopsis.)

Occupation : Surgeon

HP : 1500

MP : MAX

Is what he filled.

What appeared next was Skill.

This one is a blank space, so it appears that he can write whatever he wants.

'Skill, my wish is that I'll be able to perform surgery/operations anywhere, I want an operation room.'

'That is with the help of magic, in other words everything concerning medicine and medical treatment knowledge, is the ability I want.'

'I want to be able to analyze diseases that I don't understand.'

'I also want the knowledge needed in order to cure them.'

'I want magic that will enable me to create stuff like medicine and organs'.

'It'll be great if I can defend myself with Aikido.'

Avatar, he shaped it into his 18 years old appearance.
Other requests column, — — —,
Once everything was filled in, while thinking 'what the hell am I doing' he pressed complete.
On the screen was, 「Now then, please enjoy your wonderful life in a different world ♪」is what was written.

After that he went to bed on the sofa.
When he opened his eyes, it wasn't his house but rather a completely unfamiliar different world.

Underground Doctor — Chapter 1: Waking up in another world — Part 1

DLP rant at the end of the chapter.

Translator: Light

Editor: Onilateur

Sunshine flickering through leaves.

Warming one's ear, the earthly fragrance tickled his nostrils.

「What the.....It's not even worth it to sleep.」

He got up while rubbing his eyes with the back of his hands.

With his eyelids still heavy, he surveyed the his blurry surroundings.

Gradually, the surroundings scenery cleared up.

Beside him was a prairie, that extended to the horizon and was beautiful to the point that it would make a picturesque scenery.

「What the, aren't I still in a dream.....Well why not take another nap.」

He gently closed his eyelids, under the sun's comfortable light.

Again, he has tried to let go of his consciousness.

「!!!??? No no, there's totally somethin' wrong! Why is it a grassland? What kind of hidden camera show is this!」

Just feeling the touch of the earth, even the wind's blowing at my skin feels way too realistic.

This kind of dream, there's no way it's not real, he ended up tsukkoming himself.

He pinched his cheeks to confirm it.

He took out his mobile phone but it was out of service.

He wished for it to be a dream, however that wish was crushed immediately.

「Hey hey..... There's no way that's possible. There's no way that's true, not yet! It's not yet, decided. I want to go somewhere with people, but what kind of torture is it to have only horizon in all 360°!」

One person muttered as he heaved a sigh.
‘But, staying here won’t solve anything.’
Reluctantly, he begins walking toward the other side of the horizon.

About 3 hours after he started walking, a forest appeared in his vicinity.
At the beginning he was only able to see dribs and drabs, but as he walked closer it appeared to be quite a dense forest with large trees.

「I’m so hungry, I feel like dyin’. Yesterday, I forgot to have anythin’ other than liquor.....」

Because of hunger his steps became heavy.
He looked around.
His eyes suddenly stopped at the tree in front of him. There was a fruit that resembled oranges.
His hunger was nearing the limit. If it’s edible, then anything would do.
Hurriedly he grabbed one from the tree, he peeled off the skin and and lifted it to his mouth.

「Hey! lad, that’s poison that you shouldn’t be eating. Also, don’t move from there.」

Hearing the voice from behind, he stopped moving it to his mouth and turned around.
There, a man who dressed like a Holy Knight wearing a silver plate was standing. Because he looked to be heavily equipped, it seems that it’s considerably hard to move.
While looking at his figure, He couldn’t help but think that it was a cosplayer.
That man, pulled out a large sword and started running toward here.

Based on that action, Kaoru’s expression twitched.
No matter how you look at it, it’s a real sword.
While thinking that he’ll die if he was cut by it, Kaoru realized the seriousness of the sword that is being swung at him.

His body went stiff, without even being able to move he stood upright.
Bushiya! sound rang, and something that made a rolling sound appeared.
Kaoru’s back drenched in sweat, he slowly turned to look at what made the sound.

There, a spider whose size was around 150cm was cleanly torn in half.

As he watched fearfully, green liquid was oozing out of its body as it spasms.

「That was pretty close. lad, this is a Gracia Spider! It has a deadly poison
The instant that you're bitten by this spider you would get paralyzed, and then eaten and taken to the other world!」

(He meant the netherworld)

The old man that was cosplaying as a Holy Knight, said to Kaoru while making a glad expression.

「Ahh, ya've saved me.....」

For a bit, Kaoru made a befuddled expression.

「This whole region has them. About that Oren, eating it is a deadly poison.....
You do know that right?」

Cain said, as he pointed at the fruit.

「No, sorry. I just arrived here, a few minutes ago. That's why, I didn't know that this had poison in it.」

「Huh.....Is that so? Ahh~ great, great. To be honest that Oren has poison in it.
If you were to eat it without knowing, you would've died from the poison. If, I didn't pass by here, lad would've died. Ahahahaha」

While the Holy Knight cosplaying was having a hearty laugh, Kaoru with a forced smile asked him where this place is.

‘Confirming whether my previous thoughts are true or not.’

「Nn? This place is 【Sasara's Prairie】. From here, going through the forest to the east, is【The Great Labyrinth City's Grand Palace】y'know? You didn't know?」

Hearing this, he heaved a sigh in his heart.

‘This place, isn't Japan or any other foreign country.’

He was made to realize that this is a different world.

Without showing it on his face, he answered back with a smile.

「Sorry, I didn't know. Coupled with hunger I couldn't think straight.」

He said while scratching his head.

「If that's the case, further down there is my party so do you want to join us? There's food as well.」

「Ooo! Really, that'll totally save me.」

「In trouble we should help each other right? I'm Iruga Orcus. What about lad's name?」

「Ashiya Kaoru. Nice to meet ya, Old man Iruga.」

Kaoru said with a smile.

They began walking immediately after exchanging greetings.

Iruga while looking weirdly at Kaoru's attire, he made a strange expression and said,

「You're wearing strange clothes huh」

「Nn? Is that so? This is, what I usually wear though.....」

The top is, an aloha shirt while the bottom is shorts.

He's also wearing a white robe over the shirt.

And, rather than shoes he's wearing sandals.

「It's not an explorer. If I were to say, a healer?」

「Nn? Explorer, healer? What's that, do ya have occupations like that?」

Kaoru, tilted his neck as a question mark appeared above his head.

Looking at his expression, Iruga answered while breathing out a sigh.

In this world there are several labyrinths.

Within them the one with the highest difficulty is, the labyrinth in this place, 【The Great Labyrinth City's Grand Palace】.

The aim of explorers are to capture it.

Conquering the labyrinth would reap a lot of rewards from the country.

Status, fame, territory and money are just among what you could get.

‘This, has nothing to do with me’ thought Kaoru.

However, it seems like a lot of people make a living by killing the monsters within the labyrinth, and then selling the drops.

‘Regarding earning money from now on, it shouldn't be a problem’ he thought.

‘A healer is, the one who takes care of the injured who returned from the labyrinth, and the ones who act as a support once they're inside labyrinth, is what he taught me.'

「I understand now. Old man Iruga too, is headin' out to challenge the Grand Palace?」

「Yeah, that's why I came to 【Sasara's Prairie】for preparation.」

「Thanks to that, I was saved right.」

The two people walked as they noisily talked.

「You're late! Iruga! Eh, who's that person?」

All of a sudden, there is a girl who spoke to Iruga.
glossy red short hair, wearing an indigo blue robe, and slightly slanted eyes that seemed angry.

To that, Kaoru fixedly stared.

Kaoru murmured in a low voice, 「Hee, she's quite the beauty」.

「She looks to be twenty years old', he thought.

「Sorry for being late. I met this lad, at 【Sasara's Prairie】forest. He's Kaoru.」

「Hello, I'm called Ashiya Kaoru. Nice meetin' ya」

Kaoru said with a smile.

Light: Now then, About what's happening with DLP. Right now, I'm going through my finals. April, I was going through my midterms. It turns out that due to some complications, my finals were hastened up a month and a half, so I've been quite busy. Fairy is also a bit busy with his japanese exams. However, chapter 11 is fully translated and now being edited, so that one should be out in a bit. I'll release even more once my finals are over.

Now then, about this project. If any translator wants to give me a hand, I won't reject anyone. Though keep in mind, the MC talks in kansai. Also, yeah, this is a side project of mine. DLP will still remain my main project. And this one's chapters are quite long, so I'll have to do 'em in parts too...

Underground Doctor — Chapter 1: Waking Up in Another World — Part 2

I got four finals crammed into this week, so don't expect any new (parts of) chapters. Fair warning, there might not be one the week after that as well. However, once summer starts...huehuehuehue.

Also, today I've been reminded that having an editor is a life savior. Oh, how they translate broken english into proper english, they have my respect! Anyways, please enjoy the chapter~ (P.S: I'm also happy that the new DLP chapter is finally posted~)

「Ah.....Hello. I'm Ririka Arnold.」

Ririka too, lightly bows.

After exchanging light greetings, they talked about how they got here.

「Well done, coming this far like that.」

Ririka directed a scornful glare to Kaoru.

Kaoru dodged it by saying, 「I was just lucky.」

「Kaoru, you didn't take a look at your status?」

「Status? What's that? How do you see it?」

「「.....」」

Hearing Kaoru's words, they directed astonished gazes at him thinking "how the hell does he not even know that, how was he even able to survive up until now."

「I don't know something, that I know nothing about.....I'll be grateful if you told me though.

I think that probably, there are still things that I don't know. Will you teach me in detail?」

Saying it with a feeling of ‘There you have it’, he clasped his hands in prayer. To Kaoru who was like that, with a ‘There’s no helping it’ they taught him. Getting on the carriage, in the leisure time as it was heading towards the 【Grand Palace】,
「I see.....huh.」

He nods while putting his hand on his chin.
Right in front of Kaoru’s eyes, the status screen appeared.
‘Throw yer anxiousness out!’ He thought within his heart as he felt like tsukkomig himself while looking before him.

「(This.....Before going to sleep, it’s the things I’ve written in that site. Half jokingly, I’ve written ‘I want to be able to perform surgery in any place’ is exactly reflected here. Besides, I can still see the HP.....As for MP, the more the better so let’s go with max is what I’ve written and thanks to that it’s all corrupted now)」

Within his heart, ‘there must really be something wrong with my head’, he really felt like tsukkomig. Another worrisome issue is his appearance. Right, the one he created in that site, wasn’t only his status. He’ve also made an avatar. He just remembered that he created it, with the image of himself from when he was 18 years old.

He secretly used his phone as a mirror to check. There, with silver swept back hair, green pupils, slightly slanted eyes, and to finish it off with facial features that belonged to a handsome man.
For a moment, all thoughts ceased.

In a panic, he thought that there is no help but to kick start his brain. Because it's a situation that won't change just because you think about it.

「Old man Iruga, I still have something to ask ya.....」

「Nn? There's still more?」

Kaoru said with a wry smile,

「About Hp, how much is the usual average?」

「Nn? Probably a 100 at the beginning? I've also heard that for experts, they have four or five digits.」

He breathed out a sigh for his broken abilities. 'I've understood various things. Next is money', he thought.

“Gyuuuuuto” His empty stomach went.

Kaoru, as if to say “you've forgotten about me,” he clasped his hands again in worship to the two people.

Iruga, with a “good grief” feeling to it, took out dried meat and bread and handed it to Kaoru.

Kaoru, with the act of mercy he was given, munched on the food.

After filling his stomach, his mood improved.

Kaoru opened his status screen, he then moved the cursor over to the skill column text and an explanation appeared opposite to it.

『Other Dimension Operation Room』

Whenever he wishes for an operation room, this'll create another dimension. Alone, he'll be able to effectively do an operation without assistance, and use from medical kits, to medical equipment, to blood transfer packs, etc etc.

In the time that Other Dimension Operation Room is deployed, it'll continue to consume MP.

MP Consumption 1000000

『Aikido』

Aikido is, an optional on/off absolute counter skill.

While activated, using the attack power of the opponent's attack in the right moment, a counter that returns double the power is executed.

The body reacts automatically.

The counter can only be executed against human-type opponents.

He lets out a sigh at the skills and magic he possesses.

「(This other dimension operation room, everythin' that surgery needs, anythin' I can imagine will appear huh..... At this point MP consumption isn't a concern.. Though, I don't know how much I have. Well, it's another world after all. Moreover, it doesn't look like it has Japan's level of medical treatment regulations. It means I can set the price myself. What the, now that I know that I can make easy money I feel motivated. Still, I really need to know the level of medical technology in this world.)」

While thinking that he made a vicious expression by crooking the corners of his mouth into an evil grin.

「Oi, Kaoru we're about to arrive. 」

He hid back his vicious expression. With a broad smile, he responded to Iruga's words.

Taking his body out of the carriage, he stared at 【The Great Labyrinth City's Grand Palace】

There, enormous ramparts as if to enclose the town, were erected. Its height around 20 meters, it looked like an impregnable fort.

Kaoru, held his breath.

After all, in Japan there wasn't a single large town surrounded entirely in ramparts.

‘Because I've only seen it in movies before, there's no helping it' he thought.

Kaoru, was fascinated by the ramparts.

「It tickles a man's romance. This is great.」

Kaoru's shoulders began to tremble, as he felt in high spirits as if he was a child.

「Ahahahaha, anyone's first time seeing, 【The Great Labyrinth City's Grand Palace】would have their heart dancing by the view.」

Entering inside, the stone pavement of the street seemed out of Middle Ages Europe, the irregularity of the shops' lining is another sign of taste. Around them are beings of various races.

A person has a horn sprouting out of them, another with tails and ears, it's crowded with countless people.

After entering the town, Kaoru parted with the two people. To the two of them, he waves his hands with a smile.

「No~ow then, how about we investigate various things shall we. For the time bein', let's head to a medical shop. I want information after all.」

Raising the corner of his mouth while thinking, 「It'll be interesting from now on」, he disappeared into the crowd of people.

Light: Hello~! Guess who's back~ Too bad I won't be back for long =3=
As it appears, although I'm finished with my finals, I'll be forced to go without a laptop for three days starting from now (Yes, now, I'm giving away mine as soon as I finish posting this), so I won't be able to do any translations. Oh, and this chapter is 2.5 longer than the previous one. To put it in perspective, chapter one was 400 lines (200 lines for each part, or 1.2k words), while this one is 1k lines! Dunno if I'll split it into four parts, or three, but yeah. Anyways, enjoy~!

Kaoru, who's walking in the center of the town of 【The Great Labyrinth City's Grand Palace】, is restlessly looking for a medical store.
Without being able to find a store in sight, his face contorted as he sighed.
The town being too large as well, gradually fatigue began to pile up.
Just then, he spotted someone that looked like a gatekeeper, so he tried to ask him.

「Pardon me. Is there a medical store, somewhere around here?」

「Medical store is it? In that case there isn't any outside of the west's Medical District.
Since this is the east's Commercial District.」

To the smiling gatekeeper who answered, Kaoru raised his hand and said, "Thanks a lot!" as he hastily left the commercial area.

As he was dragging his exhausted body, he arrived at the west's Medical District.
There, a lot of treatment facilities were there.

There were a lot of people as well, and stores that were able to attract queues/lines.

Looking at one person, seeing what kind of injuries that person had, he confirmed.

Scrapes, bruises, etc etc.

They're mostly all similar, he thought while walking.

In order to promptly get information, about this other world's medical treatment, he's come to the Medical District.

Because there are a lot of people, it'll take a considerable amount of time. So, he searched for an empty store.

「Oh, found it! Huh, it looks pretty torn down. Well whatever.」

While saying that, he entered the place that had the signboard 『Liz's Treatment Center』

「Heellooo~ Are you open~? What the, it's dark. So the place was out of business.....」

Kaoru said, with disappointment however,

「How rude! I am open.」

An answer was returned, from a slightly annoyed voice.

Looking inside, a girl with beautiful blond hair that reaches down to her waist, was there.

With delicate limbs, wearing a white shirt and a black skirt, clad in a white robe.

「What the. If ya were here ya should've answered. If I was a costumer I would've left.」

Kaoru, who talked as if mocking her.

With a tall figure, he seemed to be about 175cm.

With swept back silver hair, he was wearing an aloha shirt and shorts.

Above the shirt, he wore a white robe.

With evil-looking eyes, he was a handsome man. (Light: I translated them in the last part as "Slanted eyes" which is technically true, I'm going with "evil-looking eyes" from now on. Gonna keep the slanted ones from earlier however, just to give out the image.)

From such an attire, the girl, who guessed that they're in the same profession, glanced at the glaring Kaoru.

「Such, ya don't need to make such a scary face~. It's not like, Imma gonna eat ya or anything. It's just, there's something I wanna ask ya. That's why I came here.」

While laughing loudly, Kaoru watched the girl.

「Oh, I still haven't introduced myself. I'm Ashiya Kaoru.」

「It's Liz Cradle. So? You're not a customer right?」

Adding the fact that she was made fun of earlier, Liz was feeling quite irritated.

「I'm broke y'see. I wanted a bit of information that's why I came here.」

While scratching his head, Kaoru said.

「If you don't have money then please return! The exit is this way desu.」

Liz stood next to the exit, she glared as if saying "Hurry up and leave".

「Just listen to me. Why are ya so angry?」

Kaoru, while laughing loudly, tried to talk to Liz, however her frustrated expression deepened.

「You, you must be one of the companions of the guys who're trying to destroy my shop! Hurry up and return! Don't ever get involved with me again!」

While saying that, she threw the book right in front of her eyes at Kaoru. That is, it splendidly hit Kaoru's eyelids, and it was cleanly cut. Blood was smoothly running down.

「Oh? What are ya sayin'? It appears, that ya're misunderstandin'. I only came here, to this town, in order to see if there's a seriously ill patient that cannot be cured so I came here to ask about it.

Liz, with your selfish assumptions, don't hit other people. I feel bad for speaking frankly. In addition, in a place to receive treatment, what's up with gettin' hurt.」

The tone, his never changing voice's tone, was lowered a bit. He eyed Liz with a serious look.

「Uuu.....」

Toward Kaoru's straight stare, Liz winced.
Still, due to her selfish misunderstanding toward him, while looking at the wound that she inflicted, she was unable to talk back.
With a downcast expression, Liz who fell silent.
Kaoru, while looking at that expression, 「Uwaa I've seen such a cute face」, he said while laughing loudly.
Hearing his words, continued in silence as her face turned red.
Then, 「Sorry for jumping to conclusions」 she apologized.

「I'll treat it. Please let me see the wound.」

Although Liz has said that, Kaoru wanted to try out his own skill so he took control of the matter.

「Recovery Magic, what is it's highest grade magic?」

「I've seen it in the status screen, whether it's right or not I want to confirm it from Liz.」

「Eh? If I'm not mistaken, 『Complete Healing X Cure』 is what I think. Regarding the wounds remaining, it appears that most of them will not be left.....The ones who seem that can use it are about, Spirit City 【Ecriks】's High Priest...」

「Hee, is that right. Recovery Magic —— 『Complete Healing X Cure』」

Powaato, an olive green light concentrated on the wound.

Kaoru's eyelid wound began to disappear.

Although the cut was a bit deep, however it disappeared without a trace.

At the place where the wound is supposed to be, Kaoru extended his hands and touched.

Ooo! Amazin', he thought.

Liz, while opening and closing her mouth, 「What the hell are you doing!」 with that condition, she grabbed ahold of Kaoru's collar, and began shaking him.

「Liz, sorry but I'm starting to feel sick. A little, stop.....shaking me. I'm seriously going to throw up. What I've eaten in the noon is going to come ouuuuuuuut」

「Ah.....S-sorry.」

When Liz, let go of him, his face already turned pale and he collapsed onto a chair.

「Ahhhh, I feel sick. Mou.....I can't move anymore. My head hurts~ What should I do.....This girl, approached an injured man to deliver the finishing blow.....Burp」

While saying that, he sneaked glances at Liz.
Uu, Liz with a guilty expression said,

「I-I understand. All you have to is rest right! Since, it was all my fault!」

「Y-you're really serious right? Absolutely, right? If you broke your promise, you'll pay with your body right? Also, if you bring out food I'll be grateful. 」

Kaoru, 「Even if it's porridge, I'll eat it~ I want to fill my stomach, with tenderness~」With a voice that indicated that he was sick, addressed Liz.
As if it was an incantation.

「Alright! Why don't I make it for you!」(Light: Btw, she's tsun tsun throughout the conversation.) With a half feeling of an offender being angry at the victim, Liz declared.

「Eh? Seriously? I've done it, hotel secured!」

His pale expression from some time ago, with a feeling that it disappeared somewhere, Kaoru struck out his fists in triumph.
Toward that expression, Liz, “Dammit, I've been had!”, she thought while her shoulders trembled.
Kaoru while saying, “You're so easy to manipulate”, laughed loudly.

Kaoru who secured both an inn and dinner, asked Liz about the information that he wanted.

「About what we talked earlier. Within this town, is there a seriously ill patient with an incurable condition?」

「Umm, I believe there is one in the Nobles District. However, it's absolutely impossible to cure.

Even the High Priest with 『Complete Healing X Cure』, wasn't able to cure it.」

「I understand that. So? That noble, what sort of symptoms?」

Kaoru, entered his work mode.

「I believe that she said that she had a weak heart. It seems that she was born with it.....right now, she's 16 years old yet she finds difficulty walking, so it looks like she's bedridden.」

According to what he just heard from Liz, a couple of diseases came to Kaoru's mind.

「Is that right.....Another one. Other than recovery magic, is there any magic that cures abnormal human conditions?」

As he asked this to Liz he put his hand on his chin.

Liz made an expression that wanted to say, 'Why are you asking the obvious?''

「It's not like there aren't any. To begin with, something like recovery magic is used in situations like dressing wounds or mending broken bones at most y'know? Poison for example, in that case, a magic for something like neutralizing poison inside the body is used. And, from what I've heard, the High Priest's 『Complete Healing X Cure』is able to reattach limbs that were torn off, and to the ones who had their face eaten by monsters, it seems that it's also able to return it to what it used to be.」

Liz explained.

「Oh? In case of a disease, what do ya do then?」

Kaoru, regarding the treatment for external wounds, understood that it is possible using recovery magic. However people, without a doubt would be infected by some kind of disease.

And yet, he recalled that he questioned how the the illness part of a disease never appeared. (Light: how the 'byou' (病) character of 'byouki' (病氣-illness) never appeared, courtesy to Osura~)

「Ah~ Un, that is y'see. It can't be cured. Since we don't know the cause. And recovery magic isn't working at all. That's why everyone, regarding their health, are putting their all into keeping it.

You'll know by seeing the scenery outside right? Even if it's a slight injury, everyone is flooding treatment centers. If their body ceases to move, it's the same as being dead after all. About all of that, right now it seems to be the subject of various researches in 【Ecorks】, but it seems to be hopeless.」

Said Liz, with a feeling of 「It'd be great if we could do something about it」. Kaoru, after hearing the information, said with a smile,

「Alright, I'll be off doin' work okay. Thanks in advance for dinner.」

While saying that, standing up hastily, he walked out through the exit.

「What is wrong with that person.....」

Liz, while heaving a big sigh, returned to arranging medicine.

Kaoru, entering the Nobles District, lit a cigarette while walking.

「Before heading to work, I have to relax~ Ah, I don't know that noble's house. Well, it should be fine if I just ask around.」

He walked while laughing loudly.

Just then right in front of his eyes, a lady that looked to be really gentle was there, so he decided to speak to her.

「Excuse me for a bit. I want to ask you about directions. In this area, do you know the house of a seriously ill patient?」

「Umm, this might be rude but are you a healer? right?」

「Yup~ Sorry ne, from my surroundings, I've been told a lot to not behave like this. I am, a healer who came from 【Ecorks】. Not knowing where the seriously ill's house is, it's already sunset.」

He said to the lady with a feeling of 'What a problem~' accompanied with appropriate gestures.

Kaoru incidentally caught a sight of the lady's wrist.

He looked at the thing that looked like bandages as they flailed around.

「You seem to be hurt right? What happened?」

Making an expression that seemed like he was extremely worried, he spoke to the lady.

「How embarrassing. Yesterday, my daughter pestered me to make the sweets I used to make.

Because it's been a while, I've decided to make it enthusiastically. At that time, my daughter came to play a little prank. Coincidentally, my wrist was next to the oil, so I ended up burning myself.」

Kaoru, to the lady who was speaking with the feeling of 'It's alright', said,

「If so, It's best to quickly heal it.」

「Yes. Right now I was on my way back from the neighbor's house. I'm thinking that, as soon as I return I'll head to a treatment center. Thank you for your concerns.」

With a smile, the lady said.

「If you'd like, I'll heal it for you? Since a lady's skin is delicate. Being treated with an unskillful recovery magic, the curable wouldn't be cured, and even if it is it'll leave a scar.」

The lady, as if worried a bit began to ponder.

Just one more push, thought Kaoru as he said,

「Because of my job, I came to this district. I wanted to investigate various things as well.

Because it's an order from the high priest y'see. Well, although I'm a youngster, pretend that you've been tricked, and just try it once. From my appearance, being doubted is normal. But when it comes to skill, I have it y'know.」

Kaoru, while belittling himself, lowered the other party's guard.

Then, he said while laughing loudly.

In response the lady giggles,

「Well then, let's try being tricked for once then.」

While saying that the lady, sat down at the nearby bench.

The lady, directly takes out her wrist and reveals the burn.

「It's unexpectedly deep.」

The burnt place was swollen with heat to the point of having blisters.

「Although【Complete Healing X Cure】would clean it nicely, but using it, it would seem that it'll bring problems. With recovery magic, let's use another one that has similar effects」Kaoru thought as he used magic.

「『Recovery Magic——Skin Regeneration Angel Breath』」

A pale light blue wind gently enveloped her wrist.

Then, with a gentle light in the location of the burn, it returned to its original pretty skin.

Kaoru thought, 「It regenerated quite well. High grade sure is effective」

The lady was speechless. It was because he just used a magic that's classified as a high grade magic. People who can use high level magic, there aren't any in this town. At best, they can only use intermediate level magic.

「It's all alright now.」

With a smile, he said to the lady.

「What could I say. You are really a healer who came from 【Ecriks】desu ne. Err the price?」

Kaoru held back the lady's hand who took out money from her bag,

「As for money, I don't need it. In its stead, can I have you guide me to the seriously ill patient, and introducing me as a healer from 【Ecorks】? I can't prove it so can I rely on you?」

Kaoru begged the lady with both of his hands clasped! He requested her with that feeling. She'll gladly give me her understanding. Kaoru softly thought. 'In this other world, I think the word【Ecorks】is pretty powerful when it comes to advanced level recovery magic. It seems like a simple replacement for a business card', Kaoru thought 'The place we're aiming for is pretty close, it seems to be called the Olvis Household.'

Just like that the two people began walking, aiming for the Olvis Household.

Arriving in front of Olvis Household's front gate,

「Greetings~ Excuse me. Mister Olvis, are you there~?」

Hearing the voice, the gate opened.

Inside, a maid came outside.

It's a real maid! Because I've only seen fake ones, it's so refreshing! He thought.

「I've come from【Ecorks】. I'm healer Ashiya Kaoru. I've come here under the high priest's command.」

To Kaoru's words, the maid reacted. Then, the Lady verified it as well. This lady seemed surprisingly influential, she readily trusted Kaoru

「Regarding the young lady's illness, I've been instructed to come and try a new recovery magic.

Would you clear the way?」

Having said that, the maid disappeared into the house in a fluster. And then returned after several minutes.

「Master has given the permission. Please come in Mister Kaoru.」

「Ahh, thanks. I'll be intruding~」

While laughing loudly, they were guided inside Olvis's household. There, he parted with the lady.

At the start of corridor, paintings and expensive vases and the like were set up. Woah, what an extremely extravagant house, he sighed as he walked.

Right in front of him was a big door. The maid gave the instruction,「Please come in」

「Now then, let's meet the patient. Arara? What the, this room's atmosphere.....It's as if it's before a funeral, the atmosphere is just too crushin'. It makes even me feel depressed.」

Kaoru, while heaving a sigh, set foot into the girl's room.

I wonder, if the one over there is the father, he thought.

Next to that person was a bed lying on top of which was a girl.

The parent, with a seemingly dark expression, while looking at Kaoru he lightly nodded.

「Greetings, I've come from 【Ecriks】. I'm Ashiya Kaoru. May I see the condition of your daughter?」

「For going through the trouble of coming such a long way, thank you very much. I am her father, Cain Olvis. And this is my daughter, Alicia. Please.....make my daughter healthy.....If you're able to cure her, I'll give you anything in return.」

Hearing those words, Kaoru thought, 'what a pleasant speech'.

His expression turned a bit crooked, however he controlled it immediately and started the medical examination.

「I'll start the medical examination right now. Can I have you step out for a short while?」

「Can I not remain? Because I'm worried.....」

「It's alright for you to remain. If I don't do what I'm going to do now, I won't know what the disease is. If you don't make noise, then remaining is fine. If you want to create noise, then can I have you leave? Since this is also my job, I won't be able to do it without concentrating.」

Kaoru made a slightly troubled expression.

Cain, thinking that something will be done concerning his daughter, gave his consent.

Kaoru, had absolute confidence that Cain would say something. He approached Alicia while heaving a sigh. The girl lying down had pale blue, shoulder length hair whose tips were curling about.

Her skin is was white as snow, and her features were good. Her blue pupils appeared somewhat fragile.

Frankly, Kaoru went 'Huh? Was I a lolicon?' She was beautiful enough to create such a misunderstanding.

「Greetin', I'm Kaoru the healer. Nice meetin' ya Alicia. Right now, I'm planning on examining you so would you please take off your clothes? It might be embarrassing. However, if it's not done then I won't know what's wrong alright?」

Kaoru spoke to Alicia with a smile. Alicia, although she felt uneasy hearing his words, she looked at Kaoru's eyes and nodded heavily.

Kaoru's eyes changed into that of work eyes. Not with a foolish feeling like earlier, but rather heavy to the point of making one's heart stir. It was as if he was saying to believe in him, that he'll most certainly cure her. Kaoru produced a smile, and patted Alicia's head. Alicia blushed, and intently stared at Kaoru.

However, toward the words from earlier, Cain and the rest couldn't help but make noise.

The two of them, with a single word stopped the daughter from taking off her clothes.

Alicia, the 16 years old daughter he cares dearly for.

To a foreign man who appeared today, just thinking of having her show him skin, words unknowingly came out.

Light: I guess this is where excuses come along huh...

Ugh, I'm really sorry for releasing this (part of) chapter a bit over a month late. Due to the fact that I live in a third world country in Asia that is filled with complicated political shenanigans. (I'll leave where exactly to your educated guesses Since the chatango regulars already know where). I couldn't have access to my dictionaries at all during that time, so I couldn't translate. (I can't read kanji unfortunately. I can speak the language, not read it ><) I've been hit with internet outage (Still am in fact, though now I can access the internet late at night, like a little bit before or after midnight). That and I've been hit with real life problems(They aren't really problems, since I've been given an opportunity that i have to strive for, that takes a bit away from my free time) as well, so I would've been late anyways. Teehee~

P.S: Hopefully the anon who wrote the comment earlier is happy.
